The Chantry House, Towcester

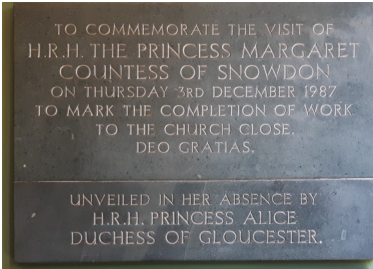

The ideal venue for meetings and social events in the heart of Towcester

The Building

The Chantry House lies in the heart of our town centre overlooking the market square: it is available to rent either by the room or as a complete building. The building is suitable for professional, work-related events or leisure and family occasions.

In 1982 the Chantry House was bequeathed to the then incumbent, Revd James Atwell, and the Churchwardens of St Lawrence Church Towcester by Mrs Alice Jenkinson. After a significant amount of fundraising and renovation work it was officially opened in 1987 as the parish office and rooms for use by the community.

Two rooms & garden space ideal for every occasion

Rooms & Facilities

The building contains the Benefice Office and there are two hireable spaces. On the ground floor the Jenkinson Room (seating capacity of 30) and the first floor Sponne Hall (seating capacity of 60). In addition the Chantry House has a lovely, enclosed garden, partly laid to slabs and partly lawn with flower beds and trees.

There is a fully equipped kitchen downstairs with oven, fridge and microwave and toilet facilities (including disabled and baby-change facilities).

To access the first floor there is a stairlift available and a small kitchen with drinks making facilities and some worktop space.

Whilst the Benefice Office is open Monday to Friday 9:30-3pm the rooms spaces are available for hirer 7 days a week—subject to other bookings.

Our daughter had a great 9th birthday party here. Access was really easy and the Chantry House were very accommodating, giving us plenty of time to set up with decorations etc. The room is a really good size with plenty of space to set up food / refreshments at one end and use the rest of the space for your activities: we hired a magician and the children still had plenty of room for a bit of a dance too!

Towcester U3A (who comprise of about 500 members with many varied interests) Wine & Food Group of 20 people have met in the Chantry almost since their beginnings in 2010 and report they have “always been well accommodated” with the Chantry Team being “very supportive of our needs and we are looking forward to working with them for many more” (years).

Facilities include both downstairs & upstairs kitchen spaces
